Practice Summary

Mr. Walters has been in civil practice since 2015, both defending insurance companies and their insureds. Regardless of his client, he places a high premium on collaboration with his clients to reach favorable solutions to legal issues. Prior to 2015, Harrison was an Assistant Prosecutor with the Cumberland County Prosecutor's Office for 10 years. He graduated from Rowan University with a degree in history and received his J.D. from the Widener University, Delaware School of Law.

Harrison is admitted in both federal and state courts in New Jersey and Pennsylvania. His most fond memories of practice are from the prosecutor's office and he brings those skills, especially cross-examination and trial preparation, to the civil milieu.

Harrison and his wife are parents to three children: a State Champion soccer player, Boy-Scout, and actress. When he is able to find some spare time, he supports the local professional sports teams (Phillies, Eagles, Union, 76ers, and Flyers) as well as Tottenham Hotspur Football Club.
