Practice Summary

Ms. Rohan has been practicing law since 2017. She started her career in Cleveland at an insurance defense law firm where she gained invaluable experience as a trial attorney, defending automobile manufacturers in warranty claims. When she moved to Pennsylvania in 2020, she worked in a plaintiff's law firm before returning to the world of insurance defense law in 2023.

Her practice focuses on premises liability, subrogation, and truck and automobile litigation. Chelsie's experience on both sides of the bar gives her a unique perspective to offer her clients.

An Ohio native, Chelsie resides in Western Pennsylvania with her husband and son. Despite living in Pennsylvania, she is an avid Ohio State and Cleveland sports fan.
